

Interlibrary Loan Requests

Although NWIC has access to several electronic resources, often a researcher will need a more specific article that the Lummi Library does not have. The library can, however, request articles and books from other institutions through Interlibrary Loan.

To request an article or book, email library@nwic.edu or use the contact form on the library website (<https://library.nwic.edu/contact-the-lummi-library/>)

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the title 'Contact The Lummi Library'. The page has a header with the Northwest Indian College logo and navigation links. The main content area contains a contact form with the following fields: 'Name *', 'Email *', 'Subject *', and 'Message'. Each field is represented by a yellow rectangular input box. To the right of the form, there is a search bar with a magnifying glass icon and the text 'RECENT COMMENTS' below it.

Please provide your name, email, and as much detail as possible about the item:

- Author Name
- Article Title
- Journal or Book Title
- Publisher
- Date of publication
- Page range
- DOI (digital object identifier)

For an article, the request could look like:

Author Name: Philip Stevens

Article Title: A Woodcutter's Story: Perceptions and Uses of Mathematics on the San Carlos Apache Reservation

Journal: Anthropology & Education Quarterly, Vol. 52, Iss. 4.

Pages: 430-450

DOI: 10.1111/aeq.12399

For a book, the request could look like

Author: Elizabeth Ann McKinley

Title: Handbook of Indigenous Education

Publisher: Springer

Date: 2019

ILL items can be found with just an author and title, but it will take longer to find. If the article is available electronically, a PDF will be emailed to you once it's available. If the item is a book, it will be mailed to you with prepaid return postage.

We will do our best to find the article or book in a timely manner. Article requests take a minimum of three days to fulfill. Book requests are typically fulfilled in 10-20 days.
